Open cabinetry provides shelves for decorative ware as well as convenient storage for daily used dishes. Wicker baskets below store root vegetables and fruit

A hand painted bountiful fruit mural adds a decorative design element to the tumbled marble backsplash field tile. The "Venetian Marbled" hood shaft tops a wood hood mantel matching the cabinetry color.

A walnut wood, ogee edged counter tops the island providing a practical work surface as well as a warm family breakfast bar for five.

Contrasting the knotty pine Perimeter cabinets, the furniture styled island is finished in raven with a heavy rub through, exposing the underlying wood character.

Sitting on aged, hand hewn hickory plank flooring, the cabinets are simply styled in knotty pine with country French flair and bead board accents.
